Fair the slopes of Olivet Under sunset skies; Like a jewel richly set David's city lies,

Down the road from Bethany Pours a joyous throng; On a royal ass rides He Whom they hail with song.

Palms they wave besides His way, Cloaks before Him fling:— "Blessed He who comes today— Master, Saviour, King!"

Through the eager pilgrim press, Toward the gate and through, Rides the One whose name they What comes He to do?

Comes a King to claim his thron In a kingdom fair? Lo! He seeks a place alone, For an hour of prayer.

Such as they acclaim? Can He crush the hopes that they Build upon His name?

Who can know the prayer He praye In the place apart? Who can know what passion sways All the while His heart?

From the temple, lo! comes He, And His face is set Back again toward Bethany, Over Olivet,

In the pilgrim host, dismay And a sense of loss; And the One who rides away Sees afar a cross!

Shall He take a rank today

COLONIAL THEATRE. "Arrival of Perpetua," Five Reels, with Miss Vivian Martin.

Thoroughly delighted audiences Thoroughly delighted audiences sreeted every showing of this marvelous story of life at a young girls' boarding school, at the Colonial theatre yesterday. Miss Vivian Martin plays the part of "Pet," the mischievous little orphan, with an abnormal legacy, and no home. First she is sent to the home of her uncle's half sister, at one of those quaint old homes of wealth at Washington square. New York at Washington square. New York city, overlooking the big arch. Here she is bored by the narrow confines of the customs of the maiden lady, and amid some of the delightfully reminiscent rooms and surroundings, many captivating scenes are enacted. scenery is used, actual rooms in an old home of this type being the back-grounds. She steals from this place and tries to find refuge in the home of the bachelor uncle, a young man, with determined and prejudiced views of the gentler sex. Pet is buffeted from one of these homes to another, in a most exasperating manner, and because of her girlish innocence, is the subject of much adverse criticism on the part of the friends of both parties, to whom she is intrusted. On the whole the picture is a most pleasing one and one that should not be missed. We give ten library contest cou-pons with every matines ticket, and five with every evening ticket. The popular price of 5 cents has been placed for the matinee admissions, according to the summer schedule.

"MICE AND MEN." Comedy to Be Given May 7th and 8th

by the Academy Dramatic Club, The comedy of Mice and Men, which to be given on May 7th and 8th the Academy Dramatic club, is full sentiment and humor combined. The story is simple enough, but so and true that it holds your interest to the end, Peggy is surely a most lovable fauodling, with a naive that both her sober-minded, womanhating guardian and his handsome nephew of military connections.

Sure Way to Regain Robust Bloom of Youth

A smooth, velvety-soft skin, with a delicate, peach-like bloom, is one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, this beautiful tint and satiny lustre are rarely seen. How to preserve them—that's the question. Famous beauty experts abroad long have known that ordinary mercolized wax works wonders in this direction. It actually gives a new surface to the skin, restoring that marvelous girlish color and softness in a remarkable manner. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will convert a faded, freckled, worn-out or discolored complexion into one of captivating loveliness in less than two weeks. No special skill is necessary in applying the wax, it being smeared on at night like cold cream nd washed off in the morning.

To remove wrinkles, or delay their formation, a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in the tipt witch hazel will be found wonderfully efficacious. This tones up relaxed skin, causing it to remain firm and smooth.
